

Please do not allow the interest of the public, to be swept under the rug by allowing corporations to gain control of all major media outlets in a community. Ultimately the people suffer as diversity, dialogue and dissent are replaced by efficient product-moving entertainment news that does not serve the community.